

June 13, 2009

PUBLICITY - SPECIAL TO THE PARIS BEACON-NEWS

Please run this article with the picture taken Saturday, June 13, 2009.

Mary Perisho-Nina Rall McConkey Trust Scholarships
For Home Economics Class of Paris High School, Paris, Illinois

John D. Carrington, Vice President and Senior Trust Officer for The Edgar County Bank & Trust Co., Paris, announced that a total of $7,200 in 2009-2010 Mary Perisho-Nina Rall McConkey Trust Scholarship grants for college is being awarded for home economics and consumer-related education to the following five students:

2009 Paris High School Graduates:

Kara Rose	Indiana State University
Chelsey Winkler	Lake Land College
Rachel Lobos	University of Illinois - Chicago

Returning Students:

Ashley J. Vilks	Eastern Illinois University
Alesha McCarty	Indiana State University
Kaylee Sivertson	Eastern Illinois University

The grants were awarded in varying amounts based upon scholarship, financial need, activities, goals and references. Committee members were Tim Crippes, Edgar County Sheriff; Angie Propst, Paris High School Home Economics teacher; and John D. Carrington, Vice-President & Senior Trust Officer of the Edgar County Bank & Trust Co.

**

NAMES FOR THE ATTACHED PHOTO

Left to Right: Kara Rose, Chelsey Winkler, Kaylee Sivertson, John Carrington, Vice President & Senior Trust Officer